

FRAMEWORK FOR PROGRAMS AND C

	Transfer Transferable to other educational programs and institutions ³	Transfer Transfer arrangements may be possible ³	Transfer No formal transfer arrangements
APPROVAL	Ministry approval following College approval for Applied Degrees. Ministry Peer Review following College approval for Diplomas and Certificates that ladder. College approval only for Certificates that do not ladder into Diplomas	Formal College approval.	Formal School approval.
FUNDING	Block grant and tuition	Student fees	Student fees
QUALITY	Formally developed curriculum inviting College-wide and external critique (the latter may include government, industry, university, licensing bodies, professional associations, or community groups) Defined admission requirements. Defined learning outcomes and learner evaluation. Updated in response to college program evaluation process	Formally developed curriculum inviting College-wide and external critique Defined admission requirements Defined learning outcomes and learner evaluation. Updated in response to market needs.	Ourriculum is determined by the School or Departments: May include defined admission requirements Defined learning outcomes; evaluation processes can be informal; reviewed by Schools Updated in response to market needs
STABILITY & FLEXIBILITY	Offered in response to on-going long-term needs Included in the Camosun College calendar	Offered in response to substantiated labour market and community demands Included in the Continuing Education calendar and promotional materials	Offered in response to anticipated community demands Included in Continuing Education calendar Program/Course changes are

